THE WORLD GAMES

WHAT & WHY

- > 30 sports, 100 countries, olympic set-up (communication, media, involvement of NOCs, anti-doping, connection to IOC sponsors)
- FAI cannot really get closer – today – to the «Olympic Family» than through participating in Asian Games & The World Games
- MoU between IWGA and IOC
- Many of our NACs build on close link to their National Olympic Committees

THE WORLD GAMES (TWG)

A JOINT HISTORY OF FAI & IWGA (SINCE 1997)

The screenshot shows the website for The World Games. At the top, there is a navigation bar with social media icons (YouTube, Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Instagram) and a search bar. Below the navigation bar, the website features a header with the 'THE WORLD GAMES' logo and the text 'The World Games BIRMINGHAM 2021'. The main content area is titled 'THE WORLD GAMES EDITIONS' and displays a grid of past and future editions. The grid is organized into four columns: 'Your City Your Country, 2025', 'Kaohsiung TPE, 2009', 'The Hague NED, 1993', and 'The birth'. The first column lists 'Birmingham USA, 2021', 'Wroclaw POL, 2017', and 'Cali COI, 2013'. The second column lists 'Duisburg GER, 2009', 'Akita JPN, 2001', and 'Lahti FIN, 1997'. The third column lists 'Karlsruhe GER, 1989', 'London GBR, 1985', and 'Santa Clara USA, 1981'. The fourth column is currently empty. Below the grid, there are four buttons: 'About The World Games', 'Medal history', 'Result history', and 'Most successful athletes'. At the bottom of the page, there is a banner with the hashtag '#WEARETHEWORLDGAMES' and a photo of athletes.
